Supervision:

The employee receives direction and instructions from the Director of Operations and Gov't Programs (DOGP). The employee receives work assignments from the DOGP. Priorities and time frames are established by the DOGP to achieve department goals. The DOGP monitors the employee's work for thoroughness, neatness and compliance with procedures and guidelines. The PHA/HCV Receptionist/Clerk is responsible for setting priorities to effectively manage their workload and assist the department in accomplishing goals.

The employee has no supervisory responsibilities.

Responsibility for Confidential Matters:

The employee will have access to sensitive information, including tenant identification information, EIV, SSN's, financial information, criminal history records, credit history, and tenant wage records. The employee will be required to ensure all confidential information is secured at all times.

Guidelines:

The employee follows the Housing Authority's policies and procedures, HUD regulations, and past experience in accomplishing assignments. Methods for accomplishing routine work are at the discretion of the employee, and subject to existing practices and procedures. When unusual situations arise, the employee may request guidance from the DOGP.

Complexity:

The employee is required to exercise personal judgment in making decisions in accomplishing assignments. Non-routine situations are usually discussed with the supervisor to determine a resolution.

Scope and Effect:

The employee's work primarily affects the administrative output of the Assisted Housing Department. A good job performance by the employee enhances the office's ability to provide housing and services to program participants.

Public Contacts:

The employee's personal contacts are with applicants, residents, landlords, other employees, and community social service agencies. The purpose of such contacts is to obtain information and documentation needed by the Housing Authority to provide rental assistance and services to program participants.

Mental and Physical Abilities:

The mental and physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

While performing the duties of this job, the employee is regularly required to stand; sit, walk, use hands to finger, handle, or feel; reach with hands and arms, and talk or hear. The employee is occasionally required to climb or balance; stoop, kneel, crouch, or crawl.

The employee must occasionally lift and/or move up to 10 pounds, and occasionally lift and/or move up to 25 pounds. Specific vision abilities required by this job include close vision, peripheral vision, depth perception, and the ability to adjust focus.

Work is principally sedentary, but may involve eye strain from working with computers and other office equipment.

Working Conditions:

The work environment characteristics described here are representative of those an employee encounters while performing the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform essential functions.

The noise level in the work environment is usually moderate. Stressful situations may occur when dealing with the public.

The employee's work is primarily in-office but may involve visits to residents' homes or other agencies. Work involves the normal risks and discomforts associated with an office environment, but is usually in an area that is adequately cooled, heated, lighted, and ventilated. Travel to other sites may involve adverse weather and road conditions.
